

Dear ICL Member:

Welcome to a great year of educational opportunities and fun associations through the Institute for Continued Learning, an organization chartered under Dixie State University.

With a comprehensive lineup of classes on a variety of subjects, I am confident you will find your ICL experience stimulating and enjoyable.

Thank you for being a part of the DSU community. Your commitment to lifelong learning sets a tremendous example for our students and contributes to the environment of education that we tirelessly work to foster here.

Your support, leadership, and example are rich resources to the community and Dixie State University.

Thanks for making Dixie great,
